4 H

Reed Kohlmeier was honored as 4-H Leader of the month. Irv Nehring and Reed's adult leader did the introduction.

Reed's Parents were in attendance with him. He is a senior at Century HS. He has been active (hyper-) in many things such as Cross Country, Skiing, Panther Band, Pep Band, Drum Line, on and on.

Did I mention chess? His dream is to follow something in the Aerospace field. When asked about his favorite project, Reed said, "I would have to say Aerospace has been the most rewarding project within my 4-H experience. I've done these projects with many hours of research and building models." He has exhibited some of these projects at the State Fair. for 5 years and received 5 ribbons in recognition.

This kid is a 'born' leader as evidenced with his presentation and prompt and clear verbal responses. It looked like maybe he was following in 'Dad's' footsteps.

He may have mentioned some details on where he would attend college, but suffice it to say he is going to attend to attain some of his goals in life.

Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to improving the world one child and one community at a time.

Dan Larson, friend of Austin Jorgenson, was introduced as a Kiwanis Guest.

Austin has done some arm-twisting to get Dan to join our group. Welcome Dan!

The latest we have heard about Induction date, it will be in Sept. when the Lt. Gov. can be present.

Irv made a detailed report on the spending for the club this year. Remember, Clare is a 'bookkeeper' not a CPA.

Irv knows how to print out reports in response to specific questions.

Scott Oesterle was thrilled to win the raffle this afternoon. He claims it was the first time since he joined our Kiwanis. He was so elated that he left the pot in the Happy Dollar basket. Thanks, Scott.

Jerry Pruitt was introduced by Irv Nehring for last week's program. Jerry has presented to our club a few years ago. You may recall that he is a retired Mayo person and an avid BIRDER. It's hard to cover the countries and continents he has traveled searching to see and, if possible, photograph. Jerry had an emphasis on birds, but is also interested in people, culture, and how we may be the same or different. This trip in Africa he saw Cape African Penguins. I thought they were only in Antarctica. This is the only variety in Africa. Ostriches are commonly seen along with elephants, rhinos, and hippos. He saw many other critters including large cats. He had sight of Victoria Falls to name another highlight.

Pete is an excellent speaker and photographer. Come any time you can, Pete.
